"Resolved, 2nd, That the delegates be and they are hereby instructed to vote for the Hon. A. E. Wilson for Governor as long as his name shall be before the state convention; and to vote upon all questions and resolutions in such a manner as shall promote and further his candidacy.

"Resolved 3rd, That the delegates be and they are hereby instructed to vote for the Hon. Ben L. Bruner for Secretary of State as long as his name shall be before the state convention.

"Resolved, 4th, That in case the Hon. George W. Jolly, of Owensboro, is a candidate for Attorney General, that the delegates be and they are hereby instructed to vote for him as such as long as his name shall be before the state convention.

"Be it resolved, That we heartily endorse the administration of President Roosevelt, and the candidacy of W. H. Taft as his successor.

"Resolved, 6th, that the delegates be and they are hereby instructed to vote as a unit upon all nominations and any and all questions that shall arise in the state convention."

Mr. Eskridge of the committee brought in a minority report which he afterward withdrew. He then moved to strike out resolution four, which motion was lost. A. R. Kincheloe then moved to strike out the following words in resolution five, to-wit: "And the candidacy of W. H. Taft as his successor." Morris Eskridge, A. R. Kincheloe and J. R. Eskridge spoke in favor of this motion, which was carried, and the words were stricken from the resolution, making it read thus:

"Be it further resolved that we heartily endorse the administration of President Roosevelt."

The report of the committee was then adopted.

Upon motion the convention then adjourned.

DEATH REMOVES AGED CITIZEN.

Mr. James T. Skillman Finds Relief From Long Suffering.

Death removed one of the oldest and best known citizens of Breckenridge county on last Friday evening when Mr. James Taylor Skillman passed away at Lakeland, following an illness of several years.

Mr. Skillman was in his seventy-first year, and until he was overtaken by ill health a few years ago had led an active business life. He was one of the best known tobaccoists in this section of the State, having been engaged in the business almost continuously since the war. He was also engaged extensively in agricultural pursuits, and at his death owned large land interests in the county. Through close application to business, coupled with industry and extraordinary business ability, Mr. Skillman had amassed a considerable amount of this world's goods. Few men there were in Breckenridge county who had not had business dealings with him, and his honesty and uprightness in all transactions are universally attested.

The ill health of Mr. Skillman dates back to the Cloverport fire, when, during the excitement, he overworked himself, and was immediately bedridden. Since then his health had gradually failed, and about four years ago he was removed to the infirmary at Louisville. Though expert medical skill and the closest attention were employed in an effort to restore him to health, all were in vain.

Mr. Skillman was twice married, the first time to Miss Elizabeth Brashear, who preceded him to the grave many years. His second wife was Mrs. Emma White, who, with one son, James T. Skillman, Jr., survives him. Besides these, he is survived by one brother and sister, namely, Mr. A. B. Skillman and Mrs. J. H. McGavock, of this city. He had been a consistent member of the Methodist church for many years. He had also been a member of the Masonic fraternity, in good standing, for more than forty years.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church in this city Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. B. M. Currie, the pastor, delivering a most appropriate talk. The burial was in the Cloverport cemetery, with Masonic honors.

Attesting the popularity of Mr. Skillman among his home people, his remains were followed to the cemetery by one of the 'largest concourses ever brought together upon a like occasion.

The sympathy of the entire community go out to the bereaved wife and other relatives.

Following were the pall bearers: W. H. Bowmer, Dr. F. L. Lightfoot, F. P. Payne, Dr. J. T. Owen, Hon. D. H. Severs and C. W. Moorman.

Mr. E. S. Dickey of Elizabethtown, was the guest of Miss Nell Whitehouse and other friends Saturday and Sunday.

PROCTOR KEITH A BENEDICT.

Popular Young Lady of Eliza- bethtown Becomes Bride of Cloverport Boy Today.

This afternoon in the Baptist church at Elizabethtown will culminate a happy courtship when Miss Louella Hargis Carr, of that city, will become the bride of Mr. J. Proctor Keith, a Cloverport young man. The Rev. W. P. Stuart, pastor of the Elizabethtown Baptist church, will perform the ceremony. Miss Lila Carr, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. George Zimmerman, of Cannelton, and Mrs. Louis H. Jolly, of Irvington. Misses Marion Keith and Clara Bond will be ribbon girls. Mr. Ira Behen, of Cloverport, will be the best man and the ushers will be Messrs. Phillip Watkins, of Elizabethtown, and Oscar Hargis, of Chicago.

The bride is one of Elizabethtown's most winsome young ladies and is much admired. She is very active in church work and has been organist at the Baptist church for some years.

Mr. Keith is the junior member of the firm of J. E. Keith and Son, of this city. He is a model young man and possesses those qualities that contribute to a happy home as well as a successful business career. His many friends extend a hearty welcome to his bride and join in congratulations to the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith will come to Cloverport immediately after the ceremony.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

To Effect Local Organization Of A. S. of E.

The meeting held in this city on last Thursday night to effect a local organization of the A. S. of E., adjourned after several talks were made, to meet last night. Mr. Sam J. Baker addressed those present in the interest of the society. The meeting called for last night was for the purpose of making the organization permanent.

*The News had gone to press before the results of the meeting could be ascertained.

ACCIDENTLY SHOOTS HERSELF.

Target Practice May End Fatally With Miss Ada Meador, of Big Spring.

Miss Ada Meador, aged sixteen years, of Big Spring, was accidentally shot with a flobert rifle on last Thursday afternoon while engaged in target practice with several friends at her home and as a result is in a dangerous condition with grave chances for recovery.

The rifle was in the hands of the injured young lady when the shot was fired. She was carelessly toying with it while engaged in conversation with those about her when the hammer became entangled in the folds of her dress, discharging the weapon, the ball entering her side and ranging upward.

EPWORTH LEAGUES

Of Louisville Conference Meet In Cloverport Next Week.

The annual convention of the Epworth Leagues of the Louisville conference meets in Cloverport next week, beginning Tuesday evening and ending Thursday evening. It is expected that one hundred guests will be in attendance. An interesting and lengthy program has been prepared and a great meeting is anticipated.

Rev. Currie is experiencing little trouble in procuring homes for the entertainment of the visitors, but requests that any one who can assist in taking care of the guests, and has failed thus far to make it known to notify him.

CHARLES KLEIN'S GREAT PLAY
Which Had a Run of Over Two Years

The Lion and The Mouse

NOVELIZED BY ARTHUR HORNBLow
ILLUSTRATED BY HEYER

A Startlingly Realistic Story of American Life of the Present Time—Throbbing with the Most Important Problems of the Day—Leading Character the Richest Man in the World—Unscrupulous Methods of the Money Power Exposed—Daring Attempt to Blacken the Reputation and Ruin the Life of an Upright Judge, Threatening the Very Foundation of Our Political Structure.

Opinions of the Press

NEW YORK TIMES

The story, like the play, belongs to this very minute. It is full of a spirit and a feeling that are in the air. It deals with subjects which much iteration has impressed on the people.

NEW YORK AMERICAN

Undoubtedly the book of the hour. Both the novel and the play appeal to the widest possible American public. The reader's interest will never lag a moment.
